

NOTICE

You have been warned!

Marijuana is an illegal drug in Japan!

Recently there have been a series of incidents involving marijuana and students.

Please be very clear: Possession, using, and the buying/selling of marijuana—all are illegal acts in Japan. Offenders can be charged and dealt with as criminals by law enforcement officials. Moreover, students who are found guilty of any such illegal actions will likely face expulsion from Osaka University.

Don't play with your future—don't play with marijuana!
